Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. McMahon:

Thank you very much for your kind congratulations upon my election to the U.S. Senate. November 6th was a tremendous day for my family and for me, and I appreciate your thoughtful comments.

I am excited about the chance to represent Tennessee in the U.S. Senate and I am eager to get started.

Tipper and I cannot tell you how much we appreciate your congratulations. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Albert Gore, Jr.
Member of Congress

Dear Senator Gore,

Congratulations on your new role in Congress as a Senator. We are sorry you will not be with us on the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence, but we look forward to your continued support and advice. I trust we can be of service to you in assisting you in your new role.

With best wishes for continued success.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
